

SIETAR Austria Workshop

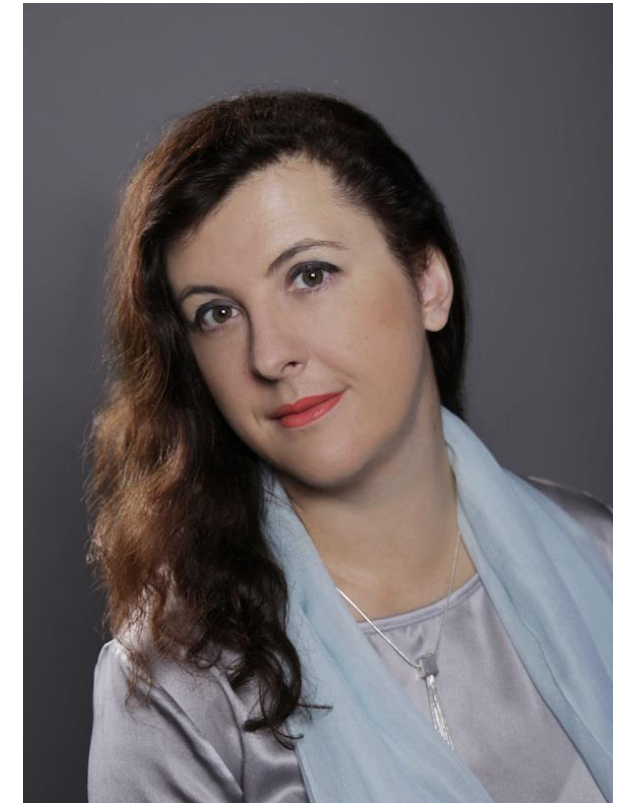

Storytelling for intercultural trainers & coaches

with Joanna Sell

January 30th, 2020 | 9:00 - 17:00

WU Wien, Program Fee: 175€ + VAT

The workshop is built on the principle of the learning journey in which you are invited to get to know the narrative approach and the neuroscience of story sharing.

Speaker: Joanna Sell, intercultural narrative coach, trainer and facilitator, founder of Intercultural Compass, consultancy specializing in virtual, multicultural teamwork, global leadership and storytelling in the intercultural working environments.

Limited places available!

Session Objectives:

- ✦ Learning how to inspire your participants to share stories that bridge cultures, initiate change & lead to a deeper reflection on leadership skills across cultures and enhancing global teamwork
- ✦ Getting to know storytelling activities, which enable the participants of your intercultural programs to describe their work-related experiences across cultures, their struggles and their success stories in intercultural situations.
- ✦ Story sharing activities for the introduction: Back-story, Intercultural Compass Tool
- ✦ Storytelling activities for change processes: Hero's Journey, Intercultural Compass Tool, interactive storytelling, open-end stories, story cubes
- ✦ Working with stories in narrative intercultural coaching: visual storytelling, re-authoring, future story
- ✦ Storytelling for evaluation: six words stories, evaluation with the most significant moment
