“Playful Learning: Exchange of IC Tools”

with Barbara Covarrubias Venegas, Judith McKimm, Magdalena Berecki-Pernkopf, Saskia Lackner

January 9th, 2020 | 17:30 - 20:30

WU Wien, Seminarraum D2.0.038

The use of games in intercultural learning has shown to be very effective. Games succeed because we remember more what we experience and learn through play. The socializing aspect and the challenge contribute to the positive experience. Real-life, sometimes serious problems can be explored in a playful way.

Limited places available!

Session Objectives:

- Presentation and playing of games used in IC training
- Gain insight into what it is like to learn interculturally while having fun
- Why are games effective?
- Exchange of experiences using games in IC training
